

Our mission is to create a visible and interconnected community of LGBTQ+ and allied STEM students and professionals committed to pursuing their careers with pride.

Started in Spring 2017 at UNC-Chapel Hill, STEM Pride of the Triangle organizes events for the LGBTQ+ & allied STEM community, including:

Queer Perspectives Speaker Series
Networking Mixers
Professional Development Events
STEM-Focused Safe Zone Trainings

For more information check out our website at stempride.web.unc.edu or contact Co-Chairs Jacob Robins at jrobins@live.unc.edu or Earl Ritchie at etritch@live.unc.edu